

Concord May 19th
1859

Miss Mary. H. Brown,

Excuse me
for not acknowledging before the receipt of your beautiful gift of May-flowers.
The delay may prove that I did not fear I should forget it, though very busily engaged in surveying.
The flowers were somewhat detained on the road, but they were not the less fragrant, and were very superior to any that we can show.

It chanced that on the very day they arrived, while surveying in the next town, I found more of these flowers than I had ever seen heretofore, and I have accordingly named a certain path "May-flower Path" on my plan. But a botanist's experience is full of coincidences. If you think much about some flower which you never saw, you will be pretty sure to find it some day actually growing near by you. In the long run, we find what we expect. We shall be fortunate then if we expect great things.

Please remember me to your Father & Mother.
Yours Truly

Henry D. Thoreau.
